ANNEX

ABOUT THE ORGANISERS

OECD Anti-Corruption Network for Eastern Europe and Central Asia (ACN) is a regional anti-corruption programme of the OECD Working Group on Bribery. ACN supports anti-corruption reforms and promotes exchange of experience and good practice among the ACN countries, in cooperation with OECD countries and other partners and organisations. The ACN organizes regional expert seminars and conducts thematic cross-country reviews on various issues related to prevention, investigation and prosecution of corruption. Seminar on Anti-Corruption Policy and Integrity Training was organised in March 2011 in Lithuania. Seminar on Corruption Prevention at Sectorial and Institutional Level was organised in June 2013 in Latvia. Earlier, a series of seminars on Asset Declarations for Public Officials as a Tool to Prevent Corruption were organised in Serbia, France and the Kyrgyz Republic. The ACN has also developed cross-country thematic studies (for example, Asset Declarations for Public Officials: A Tool to Prevent Corruption, Ethics Training for Public Officials). For more information: www.oecd.org/corruption/acn

Regional Anti-Corruption Initiative (RAI) is an intergovernmental regional organization, which deals solely with anti-corruption issues, covering the nine member states: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Romania and Serbia. The Secretariat is based in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina. Since its establishment in 2000, the Regional Anti-corruption Initiative (RAI) acts as a regional process through which governments of the region, local and international civil society organisations, bilateral aid agencies, and international organisations combine their efforts to help curb corruption in South Eastern Europe. It intends to give an impetus to the fight against corruption in South Eastern Europe by building upon existing actions through better co-ordination of all efforts and by relying on high-level political commitment. Serving as a general framework for coordination and optimization of the efforts made by the SEE countries, Regional Anti-Corruption Initiative has a multidisciplinary approach by building its activities upon five main pillars without prejudice to existing international commitments including those deriving from EU status: adoption and implementation of international anti-corruption instruments as well as implementation of regional agreements; promotion of good governance and reliable public administration; strengthening of national legislation and promotion of the rule of law; promotion of transparency and integrity in business operations; promotion of an active civil society and raising public awareness. Centre for Security Cooperation (RACVIAC) is an international, independent, non-profit, regionally owned, academic organization established in 2000. Its mission is to foster dialogue and cooperation on security matters in South Eastern Europe through a partnership between the countries of the region and their international partners. For more information: http://www.racviac.org/

OBJECTIVES OF THE MEETING
