CORRUPTION PROOFING of laws as a tool to PREVENT CORRUPTION

10 PRINCIPLES OF EFFECTIVE CORRUPTION PROOFING

- Transparency
- Accountability
- Rule of law
- Separation of powers
- Checks and balances
- Rule of law
- Anti-corruption laws
- Anti-corruption institutions
- Public participation
- Media freedom
CORRUPTION PROOFING of laws as a tool to PREVENT CORRUPTION
What is corruption proofing and how efficient it could be to prevent corruption?
Anti-corruption assessment of laws (corruption proofing)

Law on travel documents, Art. 25, paragraph 2:

“The suppliant must pay all existing fines and/or taxes prior to requesting a passport to be issued. The issuing authority may ask for a certificate that proves the suppliant has no debts to state institutions.”
Anti-corruption assessment of laws (corruption proofing)

Corruption Proofing of legislation is reviewing the form and substance of drafted or enacted legal rules in order to detect and minimize risks for future corruption which the rules could facilitate.
Anti-corruption assessment of laws (corruption proofing)

Methodology on anti-corruption assessment of laws (corruption proofing)
Anti-corruption assessment of laws (corruption proofing)

10 PRINCIPLES OF EFFECTIVE CORRUPTION PROOFING

1. Scope
2. Prioritization
3. Regulatory corruption risks
4. Timing
5. Responsibility entity
6. Recommendations
7. Compliance
8. Online publicity
9. Broader framework on transparency and integrity
10. Training and public awareness
Thank you for your attention!

Radu Cotici
PhD., Head of Secretariat
Regional Anti-corruption Initiative

Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina
+387 33 839 203
rcotici@rai-see.org