Discussion:
- Does the preparation of the national anticorruption strategies/plans follow international standards and methodologies?
  - Which are the key elements (sources of data, red flags, follow-up control, sanctioning and prevention activities) of your CRA methodologies, and do they place sufficient focus on advancing effective impact assessment and result-oriented policies?
  - Could you share good practice examples of mechanisms for ensuring public transparency and accountability at national and local level (regarding budget spending, procurement, investments, applied anti-corruption measures)?
  - Could you share good practice examples of participative local democracy engaging citizens, civil society, media, academia and the business community? How could public-private partnerships be further developed?
  - How to enhance the implementation of the anti-corruption measures in individual public entities? What type of capacity building, civil society support, and cooperation among the public authorities is needed?
- Moderator: Aneta Arnaudovska*, RAI Anti-Corruption Expert
- 12:15 CET      Closing

The working language of the forum is English.
